IN PACT TO DIE.

Sought Death at a Woman's Hand.

Omaha Doctor's Awful Plan to Save Family from Need.

Witness Says She Could Not Kill Him as He Had Requested.

Banker, Drug Fiend, Implicated and Brother Collapses on Stand.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
OMAHA (Neb.) Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A suicide pact, intended to relieve by death the sufferings of a drug fiend and the financial needs of a physician who was regarded as successful and of a woman who had descended to the bottom of the social scale, was placed upon view before the coroner's jury today to show that Dr. Frederick C. Rustin was not murdered.

Hit by bit Mrs. Annie C. Rice told the startling story. Although much was known Sunday night of the facts which led up to the death of Dr. Rustin, it was not until Mrs. Rice today related the thrilling story in the little study room used by the County Coroner for inquests, which was crowded to suffocation by reporters, witnesses and police officers, that its full import was disclosed.

Only once did the woman lose her composure and then but for a moment, when she told how the doctor had planned for the benefit of his wife and babies without a single thought of himself, but only seeking to put his family of three beyond the reach of want.

IMPLICATES BANKER.
The flood gates of her snappy black eyes opened for a moment, but she quickly controlled herself and went through a two hours' examination with the greatest composure. The narrative changed from time to time as she took up first one and then another phase of the deliberate detail with which the pact was planned but never once departed from the tragic outline which marked every sentence.

After going through the details of every maneuver leading up to the point where it seemed she was about to tell how she herself had carried out an agreement to shoot the physician, and made her escape in a way which would in no manner connect their deaths, she told instead of the woman's weakness which came over her and then implicated Charles Edward Davis, connected with the First National Bank of Omaha and a brother of Frederick H. Davis, who is vice-president of that bank, one of the largest financial institutions in the city.

BANKER BREAKS DOWN.
As a fitting climax to her own experiences with Rustin, she told of the weeks of bickering, during which the five times became weak-headed at the last moment, when the crucial time should come for her to send a bullet through the doctor's abdomen, she told how Rustin had finally let her off, at the same time telling her that he had secured the assistance of Davis.

PRINCE EITEL CHOPS WOOD.

Second Son of German Emperor Works Hard to Prevent Obesity.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BERLIN, Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prince Eitel Friedrich, second son of the Emperor, has decided that hard work and plenty of it is the best cure for his threatening obesity.

He is staying at his summer residence, Ingenheim Castle, near Charlottenburg, where from morning to night he engages in the most strenuous labor. He applies himself with the utmost assiduity to tree felling, cutting hedges, sawing wood, carpentry and the building of potting sheds.

On one occasion during the great heat he was gently remonstrated with by the Princess for working so hard.

"Oh," he replied, "this kind of work is a splendid cure for obesity," and he continued his task as though he were a paid laborer.

FOUND.

MISSING BETHUNE CALLS UP WIFE.

NEW YORK ATTORNEY IS LOCATED IN BUFFALO.

Voice of Supposed Dead Man Assures Distracted Woman That He Is All Right—Gives Account of His Wanderings—Fled to Escape Business Care.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Fannell D. A. Bethune, wife of the young attorney who disappeared from his home, No. 24 Pine street, New York, August 23, was called to the telephone in her home last night and listened to the well-known tones of her lost husband, who had partially regained his mental poise and immediately called his wife on the long distance wire from Buffalo. Like a voice from the tomb the voice of the supposed dead man told his distracted wife that he was all right and would be home in a few days.

This was the third time that the young woman had heard the voice of her husband since he so mysteriously disappeared, according to the information given out by private detectives in Chicago today. Last Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Bethune was in Cincinnati, she was called to the telephone to listen to his statements that he was regaining his reason and would soon be with her. In the communication last night Mr. Bethune declared he had fled from home to escape the volume of business care. The young man is at present in the care of friends at Buffalo and will be rejoined by his wife.

As soon as possible after Mrs. Bethune had conversed with the missing man last night she got in communication with friends in Buffalo and told them of her husband's presence in the city. The attorney was discovered at a railway station. He later gave an account of his wanderings since he left his home last month.

TAFT IN HARNESS.

Wants to Tour the Country.

Candidate Declares He Has Physical Capacity for the Work.

Would Speak from Coast to Coast and Canada Line to Gulf.

Makes Strong Points in the First Day of Active Campaigning.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CINCINNATI (O.) Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William H. Taft is desirous of making a complete tour of the United States between now and the November elections.

He says that he has the physical capacity, not only for the trip through Ohio, which began today, and the proposed campaign trip from Boston to the Pacific Coast, but also for a speech-making trip from the Canada line to the Gulf of Mexico.

The former Secretary of War is in fine fettle after his first day of active campaigning. He spoke strongly on all occasions, and tonight did not show that he was fatigued in the least by his efforts.

TO CLINCH POLICIES.
He said in his first political speech of the day at Sandusky that if elected President, he would devote his best energies to constructive recommendations to Congress for legislation which would clinch the Roosevelt policies of business honestly. At the same time he made it clear that the regulation by the government of interstate business should be not only sound in legal principle, but that the interpretation and enforcement of laws should be both clear and speedy, to the end that the legitimate aggregation of capital should not be prevented or discouraged and that confidence in the commercial stability of the country should be on the firmest possible basis.

Mr. Taft also pledged himself to further the policy of the government supervision of the issue of stocks and bonds of interstate railroads.

Later in the day he declared the Republican party to have made the best record in labor legislation during the past seven years of all previous records since Washington's time.

SCORES ONE ON BRYAN.
But later in his flying trip through the State the candidate declared with great emphasis that Mr. Bryan and the Democratic party was responsible for at least two years of fighting in the Philippines which would have been unnecessary in the absence of opposition in the country.

The personal demonstration of Mr. Taft as a campaigner, added to the positive announcements he made in his numerous speeches, constituted an important epoch in the Republican campaign.

Mr. Taft, who is comfortably ensconced tonight at the home here of his brother, Charles P. Taft, began the day with an address to the veterans who are quartered at the Soldiers' Home at Sandusky. He talked patriotism and no politics to the veterans and was cordially received.

Then came the principal speech of the day to an audience which filled the Sandusky open-house.

At 1:40 o'clock the start was made in a special car for Cincinnati. Ten minutes later at Castalia, the candidate received not only the cheers of the populace of Castalia, but a huge bouquet of garden flowers tossed to him on the rear of his car by a bevy of children.

Short speeches were made at Castalia, York, Clyde, Carey, Urbana, Wharton, Green Springs, to enthusiastic audiences.

Springfield and Dayton vied with each other for the biggest crowds of the day, and each was expressive of enthusiasm. Red, fire and torches headed the crowds at Middletown and Franklin and the speaking time was limited.

Cincinnati was reached at nearly 9 o'clock, an hour later than scheduled. The Taft family was driven directly to the residence of Charles P. Taft, from where the campaign of the month of September will be conducted.

SANDUSKY SPEECH.
The principal effort of the day for this speech was made at Sandusky. This speech was preceded by addresses by Rev. Kiefer, Gen. Corbett and former Gov. Herrick.

Mr. Taft, in the beginning of his speech, referred to the panic of last year. Confidence, he said, was a plant of slow growth. The people of the country, farmer, laborer, capitalist—were all in the same boat. The investment of money was, he said, for the return of prosperity and confidence.

"And I want to say to the men and women of this country that the election of Mr. Bryan would be a menace to the confidence which is necessary to the foundation on which prosperity rests."

The statement was warmly applauded. Mr. Taft said that what he wanted to talk about was Mr. Bryan's claim that "he is not only the heir to the policies of Theodore Roosevelt, but

DOWAGER QUEEN WHO FEARS FOR HER LIFE.

Maria Pia, of Portugal, who lives in terror, since assassination of her royal husband and son, of threats against family and who is preparing to flee to Italy.

DOWAGER QUEEN IS FLEEING FROM LISBON.

Alarmed by Threats of an Uprising and Haunted by Memories of King Carlos's Assassination, Maria Pia Prepares to Leave Portugal.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
ROME, Sept. 8.—Half crazed by worry over the persistent threats of a revolt at Lisbon, and of attempts on the lives of members of the royal family, the dowager queen, Maria Pia of Portugal, is preparing to leave that country for Italy where she will make her future home.

She is reported as having done everything in her power to induce the young King Manuel to abdicate and accompany her, but he declares his duty is to remain among his people whatever may be the result.

Queen Maria Pia has never recovered from the shock of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luis's assassinations, and a week ago, when the Lisbon press predicted there would be a general uprising, she was completely prostrated.

TOWNS THREATENED; SETTLERS FLEEING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
DULUTH (Minn.) Sept. 8.—Hibbing, the largest and most prosperous town on the Mesaba range, is threatened with destruction by fire. Every place of business in the town is closed and the men are all out fighting the flames.

"The fire is getting dangerously close and the situation looks serious," is the opening sentence of a telegram received here at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Duluth fire department received a telegram from the department at Hibbing asking for assistance and Chief Black, with a number of men and an engine, left Duluth shortly after 4 o'clock for the scene of the fire. The Mesaba road has trains in waiting at Hibbing to take the people away from the scene of danger.

Unless the wind changes Coleraine and Bovey will be safe from the fire for the present at least.

Grand Marais, Minn., on the north shore, is in the clutches of the fire demon. The people are in worse straits than the range people for they have no place to flee to.

SETTLERS FLEEING.
Forest fires are raging within a mile of the town. Settlers in the country along the north shore are walking into Grand Marais, arriving smoke begrimed, burned and exhausted with packs of their most valuable belongings on their backs and their families dragging wearily along behind them.

The woods are dry as tinder as there has not been a drop of rain in the north shore country for fourteen weeks. The fire is rushing down upon the town in great bounds. The Former United States Senator Incites to Murder of Negro.

Mississippians Work for Two Hours Breaking Down Steel Cage.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
OXFORD (Miss.) Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A mob hammered its way into the jail at Oxford tonight and lynched Lawson Patton, a negro who assaulted and then cut the throat of Mrs. McMullens, a white woman, alone in her home and unprotected, this afternoon.

The mob was fired by a speech of former United States Senator W. V. Sullivan.

Mrs. McMullens's husband, who is a prisoner in the jail, sent the negro, a trusty, to his wife with a message. The negro reached the house and found the woman alone. He assaulted her, in spite of her struggles, which the condition of the room when her body was found, showed she made to save her honor.

CHILDREN GIVE ALARM.
After the negro left the house, some children who had heard the woman's screams, notified the nearest neighbors. A woman was the first to reach the house. She, too, ran from the place screaming and summoned help. Patton was seen leaving the place by the children, and was overtaken and hurried back to the jail.

Several hours later the mob, which sprang from groups of men on street corners, discussing the affair, started toward the jail. They were met by Judge W. A. Roane, as they entered the jail yard. The judge pleaded with them to disperse, and let the law take its course. He promised an immediate trial, but his voice was drowned by the howls of the crazed men.

When the judge had finished pleading with the mob, former United States Senator W. V. Sullivan mounted the steps at the door of the jail and demanded the immediate execution of the fiend, calling on the men in the mob to see that justice was done.

WITH HOWL OF RAGE.
With a howl of rage they threw themselves on the doors and windows of the stronghold, soon gaining the interior of the building.

Here they were confronted by the solid steel cage. The jail is one of the strongest in the State, and it was only after working for almost two hours that it yielded and the covering negro was dragged from a corner, where he tried to conceal himself, to the street. A rope was adjusted as soon as the black was brought to the street and he was literally dragged to the nearest tree and hanged.

MRS. LONGWORTH FIRE HEROINE.

Princess Alice in Nightgown Saves Pet Horse.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Alice Roosevelt Longworth, daughter of the President, her husband, Congressman Nicholas Longworth, and his sister, Mrs. Buckner Wallingford, showed bravery at a fire at 2 a.m. today which destroyed the Longworth stable at the homestead in Reading Road.

Mrs. Longworth was the principal character in the drama, rushing into the burning stable and only in her night robe and rescuing her pet driving horse. Mrs. Longworth's clothing was scorched in several places, but she escaped without the slightest burn.

About an hour before the fire was discovered, Mr. and Mrs. Longworth returned from a party at the Country Club near by. Mrs. Longworth had already retired when the Congressman was notified by his coachman that the stable was on fire. Mrs. Longworth was awakened by Mrs. Wallingford and did not be restrained from rushing into the burning building in her scanty costume.

The three led eight horses in the barn to safety, and by that time the fire department had arrived. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

HUGHES VOTE IS SPLIT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Results of the application of the "Hughes test" in thirteen of the Assembly districts of New York and Kings counties in the Republican primary elections today were decidedly interesting and decidedly contradictory.

To figure obtainable late tonight, six of the New York districts gave majorities for the re-nomination of the Governor; three against.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
WASHINGTON (D. C.) Sept. 8.—At Fort Myer, today, Orville Wright made the two greatest airplane flights ever made in public in this country, remaining in the air for more than seven minutes on his first flight and for nearly eight minutes on his second flight. There was apparently no reason why the flights could not have been of greater duration as the aviator landed the last time because of the approaching darkness.

Throughout both flights Mr. Wright apparently had the machine under perfect control, rising at times to sixty feet and making sharp turns.

In the first flight the airplane whirled around the ground tilting up at the turns like an automobile taking the banks at the curve of a race course. Sweeping to earth like a giant eagle, the machine was brought down

Country Back to Same Basis, Says Harriman.

Producers' and Carriers' Interests Alike.

San Francisco Business Men Honor Magnate.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate and financier, who arrived here yesterday from southern Oregon, where he spent his summer vacation, was given an enthusiastic reception at the Fairmont Hotel this afternoon, which was attended by 400 of the leading merchants, bankers and business men of San Francisco and bay towns.

Following the reception, Mr. Harriman and his family, for the East on his special train. He said he was hurrying to New York in order to be able to return to California to attend the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress which meets in San Francisco, October 5 to 10.

CITY IS GRATEFUL.
In his address of welcome, Mr. Sharrow assured the financier that San Francisco had not forgotten his generosity and the promptness with which he had come to the assistance of the city at the time of the disaster in April, 1906. He hoped that Mr. Harriman, through his vast interests in California, would continue to be one of the great factors in its development, and added, "and we ask that you do not forget that we want a union depot—a big central station like the eastern cities have."

Leut. Gov. Warren R. Porter, representing Gov. Gillett, also made a brief address of welcome.

In responding, Mr. Harriman expressed his pleasure in having afforded the opportunity to meet the business men of San Francisco, and thanked them for their evident good will and desire to cooperate with him in everything pertaining to the future of the city and State.

INTERESTS ARE SAME.
"You are the producers; we are the carriers. Our interests are and should be the same," said he.

"Be frank with us. Let us know what your wants are and I can assure you that nothing will be turned down until it has received our consideration," he said.

"Continuing, he said: 'I believe in fair dealing and a fair return for capital invested and thought, brain work, nervous energy and work that must be put in large enterprises. We are entitled to some return for that. We are more than mere machine and just as human as the rest of you are.'

"I have been practically out of the world for several weeks, but I am glad to say that the country is getting back to a less hysterical and more common-sense view of looking at things. We all know what we have had to contend with during the past eighteen months."

ENERGY REQUIRED.
"Do you ever think of the amount of nervous force and energy that have to be put into the work of large enterprises? I have often thought whether it was really worth while whether it would not be better to settle down in comfortable circumstances and live in quiet and contentment. But there is something in man that makes him want to go on, to finish what he has started. It is this, things as this that make it worth while to go ahead."

Before leaving for New York to-night Mr. Harriman denied the reports that he had acquired three steamers from the Oceanic line, or that he was negotiating for the purchase of the United Railroads, the street railway system of San Francisco.

Investigation Into Conditions Which Caused Appointment of Receiver Discloses Fact That Large Item of Liabilities Had Been Hidden in Former Report.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LONDON, Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A $5,000,000 loss in the Pillsbury-Washburn flour mills was hidden from the directors, according to alleged facts unearthed by English bondholders of the Minneapolis concern, after an investigation. A searching inquiry into the failure which resulted in a receiver taking charge of the company is being made.

The Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills Company, Limited, is an English concern, which practically amounts to a holding company. In a statement made by the secretary it was asserted that the financial difficulties began during the crisis of last autumn. The London board believed these had been surmounted until a cable was received from the committee of management at Minneapolis asking for assistance.

This board authorized, but shortly afterward another cable was received from Alfred Pillsbury telling of the supposed, hiding of liabilities.

Stockton Man Writes General Land Office Asking Money for Arctic Railroad.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—"I am asking for an appropriation to build a railroad through the south polar regions," writes a man from Stockton, Cal., in a letter just received by Mr. Bennett of the General Land Office.

The letter, which has been filed away in the government archives in the same manner as an official letter, has been supplemented by humorous letters of the directors of the company, who are in the departmental routine, had to pass. The letter advances some peculiar solar theories, declaring that the high speed at which the sun travels creates electric light on a large scale and adds that it is twenty times farther around the earth south than west.

AIR CARNIVAL TO BE HELD IN ST. LOUIS.

Flights for Lahm Cup, and Number of Other Ascensions Will Be Among Features—Lambert Makes His First Flight in This Country.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Sept. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] St. Louis will have an air carnival this fall. Positive information to this effect was given out today by John Kearney, secretary of the St. Louis Aero Club, under whose auspices the flights will take place.

"We are counting upon several flights within the next few weeks," said Mr. Kearney. "There will be the flight for the Lahm cup, certainly, and a number of others. Our plans are as yet somewhat indefinite but St. Louis will surely have at least a small duplication of the contests of a year ago," he continued.

L. D. Dozier, president of the club, is now en route to Germany, where he will attend the international balloon races.

"The main question that remains to be settled before we can make positive plans," said Mr. Lambert, who is one of the promoters of another series of flights, "is whether or not we can secure the right kind of gas from the gas company here. My ascension today is largely to test the present gas output as to its availability for use in balloons."

Secretary Kearney was of the opinion that the series as largely amateur as possible and exhibition balloons and professional aeronauts will be kept from the lists," he said.

"We will stay up as long as we can to test the gas for October carnival," said Lambert, just prior to the flight. An altitude of 2000 feet was to be maintained until the open country was cleared, where, if other conditions were good, the trail rope was to be dropped and a lower altitude sought.

"The direction of the light breeze prevented the fulfillment of his plans. There was a slight change that an upper air current would lead them to the north and east and across the river into Illinois."

BERKMAN GOES TO WORKHOUSE.

Anarchist Is Convicted of Inciting Riot.

Reds Attempt to Capture Cooper Meeting.

Emma Goldman Flees When Police Threaten.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, will spend the next few days in jail. He was convicted in the night court at an early hour this morning of inciting a riot in a meeting at Cooper Union, and was sentenced to a long term in jail for the act, attempted to preach anarchistic doctrines at a meeting of the unemployed under the direction of the Brotherhood of the Future Association. The meeting was organized by J. Edna Howe, known as the "Millionaire Hobo," and Dr. Ben Reisman, "King of the Hoboes."

Berkman, who, during the steel works' strike at Homestead, Pa., a foundation of years ago, shot H. C. Frick and served a long sentence in jail for the act, attempted to preach anarchistic doctrines at a meeting of the unemployed under the direction of the Brotherhood of the Future Association. The meeting was organized by J. Edna Howe, known as the "Millionaire Hobo," and Dr. Ben Reisman, "King of the Hoboes."

Dr. Reisman made a speech, which he said had been written by Emma Goldman, and was followed by J. S. Overberger, former president of the Central Federated Union, who severely criticized the anarchistic doctrines in the address. He said that Berkman created a disturbance and insisted that he be allowed to speak.

The police intervened, and after a struggle, restored semblance of order. The audience having started a small riot, Emma Goldman, who was present, instantly left the hall when told that unless she went she also would be arrested.

Gas Consumers!

GAS BLOWS FIREMEN LIMPLY THROUGH AIR.

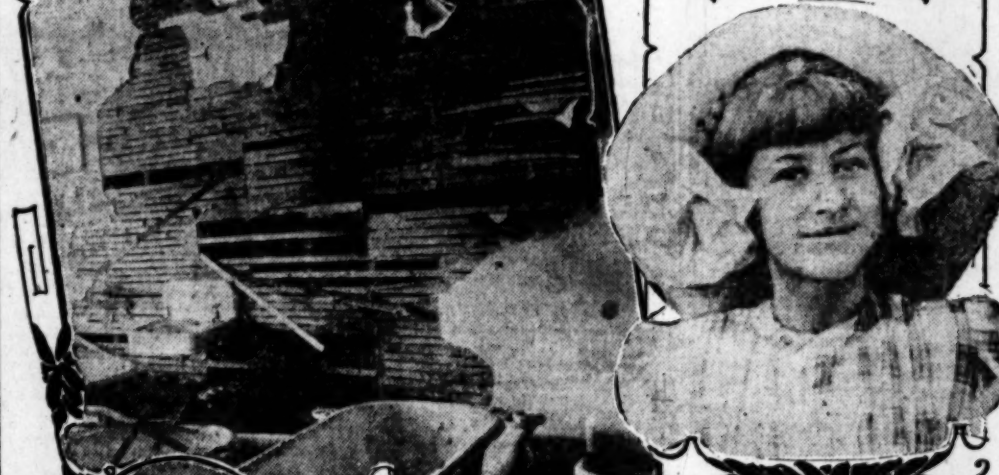

Explosion Partially Wrecks Building, Nearly Kills Many.

Seven Daring Fighters Choked, Seared and Blinded, Hurlled from Door Thirty Feet Into Street, and Little Girl Turned Three Times Before Dropping—Capt. Jenkins and Others Terribly Burned and Battered.

A terrific explosion of gas in the basement of the three-story Fred Espe Building, at South Main and Twenty-eighth streets, yesterday afternoon, seven firemen were blown thirty feet and terribly injured, while a little boy and girl and a dozen other spectators were knocked down. The entire lower floor was wrecked. Detectives are making a rigid investigation into the cause. The blame thus far is laid upon employees of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company who took out a meter of the City Gas Company and replaced it with one of their own. The rules forbid lighted matches or candles about these meters. Citizens say a gas man had a candle there.

Damaged interior.

Scene of Ruin After Gas Explosion, and Some of Its Victims.

THE INJURED. CHARLES S. JENKINS, Engine Co. No. 7, No. 1312 Albany street, burned on face, head and right hand; condition serious. FRANK W. WEST, Engine Co. 10, No. 1819 West Seventh street, face and hands cut by glass, burned about head. MILDRED VEJAR, 11 years old, No. 2514 South Main, back sprained, cut on face and hands. HENRY BATES, 13 years of age, cut on face and hands by flying glass. FACING DEATH. Shortly after 3 o'clock, and only ten minutes after the gas men had gone to work in the basement, they came dashing out, screaming for help. Almost instantly smoke began to pour from the street elevator entrance to the basement. Yelling that the basement was on fire, the men dashed about the street as though bewildered. A neighborhood plumber, Henry Johnson, turned in a double alarm of fire, while a hurry call was sent for the gas company's emergency patrol. Dumb with terror, the gas employees stood about, knowing the monster that lurked in the smoky depths of the cell.

STRUCK IT RICH AS HE STRUCK.

Papke Made Life Fortune by One Lucky Blow.

Seventy-five Thousand Dollars His Winnings.

Handsome Stage Offer, Other Golden Rake-offs.

Aside from its sporting features, the prize fight of Labor Day was a big commercial proposition. By beating a man in the face for a few minutes, Billie Papke, winner of the fight, has earned money enough, or has put himself in the way of commercial opportunities enough, to live in ease for the rest of his life; he is still a mere boy.

Men of far more education and far more ability would think that their lives were successful if, after years of hard, grinding, intelligent work, self-deprivation, sacrifices and sagacity, they could, at the end of their days, have even half the money Papke has won.

It is estimated that his victory over Stanley Ketchel was worth $75,000 to Papke. Yes, he made $75,000 by one lucky blow. If it could be bid off in the open market, his victory would be worth that. As the result of previous fights, the boy is already worth about $50,000.

Yesterday, a large number of good offers came to Papke by telegraph. One, that he has accepted, is of $30,000 for a theatrical engagement of twenty weeks.

Of course, Papke knows nothing of acting. He will go on the stage once an evening and box with some "ham" fighter. Out of money to the public, prize-fight managers no longer put champions on as regular actors.

In the very near future, he is engaged to fight Hugo Kelly in Los Angeles. His theatrical work will probably begin after that fight. If he wins it will bring him another big wad of money.

In addition to these opportunities, Papke won heavily on the fight itself, and his share of the purse is $6622.50; that being the winner's 60 per cent. of the 60 per cent. allowed by the management of the club.

Papke also won $1400 by betting on the outcome. It is stated that one of his largest bets was not really as to the outcome of the fight, however, but as to whether or not he would last fifteen rounds.

Papke felt confident of winning, and advised his friends to bet on him. The morning of the fight, Papke and his manager went out to Westlake Park for an auto ride, and two guests of the Angelus Hotel were invited to go with him; one was a man named James McLennon.

They sat around on the lawns for a while, "Combed back to town" on the way to the fight. Papke suggested to the men to bet that he would knock out Ketchel in ten rounds.

"I don't want to disparage your ability," said McLennon, "but it don't look good to me."

"Then," said Papke, "bet me to win. You can get big odds. It is simply dead sure. I can knock that fellow out in two rounds, but I am going slow; I don't want to take too many chances. But he won't last more than ten rounds."

McLennon decided to take a chance and bet $1200, winning $3600. Papke's manager, Tom Jones, won $2100 by betting on the fight.

Jones asserts that there is no danger of the boy's losing the money he has won so luckily. Papke, he says, is a careful, sober little Dutchman who supports his people and saves his money. He owns considerable real estate in the East.

RETAINING FOR TOTTER. If the fight made the fortune for Billie Papke, it has almost ruined Stanley Ketchel. His share of the purse was $4435.20 and he received a bonus of 10 per cent. in consideration of his being champion.

But he bet so heavily on himself and had to give such heavy odds that his defeat was a staggering financial blow. It would have been worse except for the fact that he was unable to place all the money he wanted to bet.

Ketchel had a big offer to go on the stage; that, of course, is canceled now. With the Ketchel family it is a case of "all going out and none coming in."

Another serious financial loss sustained by Ketchel is the championship bonus that he will not be able to collect on the next fight.

Business men will understand this as a legitimate and a sagacious provision and as an evidence that prize fights are conducted on strict business lines.

The man who fights the champion has everything to gain and nothing to lose. If a championship carries with it theatrical engagements, etc., worth $75,000, then the champion is staking $75,000 when he fights.

The other man stakes nothing. The champion is in the position of a man playing poker and furnishing the money for both sides.

In consideration of these facts, it is usual for the champion to claim a flat rake-off to be paid whether he wins or loses and above his share of the purse. It might be called "risk money."

The next time Ketchel fights Papke, it will be Papke who gets the bonus and this should have been set down as one of Papke's assets.

Not only was this fight of great importance to the two fighters but a lot of other money was involved. The betting in sporting circles was unusually heavy.

LUCKY BRINK. John Brink, the restaurant man, stated to a friend that his winnings on Papke were $5000.

FORGETS SELF. LAST THOUGHT FOR HIS SISTER.

LITTLE FELLOW DIES FROM FALL IN CESSPOOL.

As He Felt Earth Crumbling Beneath His Feet, He Shouted to Companions to Keep Two-Year-Old Girl Back—Mother's Grief Pitiful. Blames Herself.

To die from a fall into a cesspool was the fate of Howard Dodine, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Morell Dodine of No. 3513 Pomeroy street, yesterday. The pit was in his yard and he and several companions were amusing themselves by throwing stones into it. Suddenly the earth crumbled beneath his feet and the boy plunged into the water.

He was a brave little chap for his last thought was for his sister. Two-year-old Mabel was standing near the pool and as her brother fell, he shouted: "Keep Mabel back!"

There was only a little water in the hole but the boy's head struck on a rock at the bottom and this caused a fracture of the skull.

When Mrs. Dodine, hearing the cries of the children, ran out of the house and learned what had befallen her son, she called frantically for help and neighbors responded. The fire department also was summoned and the boy rescued from the pit with ladders. He was unconscious but alive. Drs. Martin and Dundas made every effort to revive him but in vain.

The grief of the mother was pitiful and she unbroidered herself for allowing the children to play near the cesspool, which she knew to be dangerous and which was to have been repaired today.

The father is in the employ of the People's Gas Company and arrived home just as his son's body was being carried into the house. It was taken to the John R. Paul undertaking parlors last night. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

PLEASANT OHIO MEETING. The Ohio Society held a pleasant meeting last night. Werner Corbin recited selections from James Whitcomb Riley; Miss Balia Fitzgerald gave "Bill Thayer"; Miss Mamie Boswell, monologue; The Minister's Black Nance; and Mrs. S. Etta Young offered a happy selection.

ENGINEERING MARVEL. Capt. A. A. Fries, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A., who has returned to the city from an official inspection of the Santa Fe Railroad bridge across the Colorado at Parker, Ariz., took a side trip while in the Territory to the big Roosevelt dam on the Salt River. He said yesterday that it is a marvel of engineering skill.

AT THE CITY HALL.

VERIFICATION NOT NEEDED?

CITY ATTORNEY STOPS WORK ON REFERENDUM COUNT.

Holds Petition as Filed Must Be Transmitted to City Council Without Investigation, but Legislators May Balk on Accepting It—Special Session Tomorrow.

According to a decision sent to the City Clerk by Assistant City Attorney Schenck the petition filed for the submission of charter amendments at a special election does not require official verification on the Great Register. Consequently the City Clerk will send the petition to the Council at its special meeting tomorrow without comment, and the work of verification has been stopped.

The petition was filed Friday afternoon and purports to contain the names of 10,738 "qualified voters" of the city. According to the Great Register at 9 o'clock last Saturday morning there were 83,329 "qualified voters" in the city. The law requires that 15 per cent. of this number is necessary to make a petition mandatory on the Council. The number necessary, therefore, is 9494 and the petition, on its face, bears the signatures of 142 more than this number, there is always doubt about these names, however.

The City Clerk's force went to work promptly on the segregation of names by precincts and even spent Monday, a legal holiday, at this work. According to the City Clerk, the segregation of names is a legal opinion as to his course, seeing that the petition was filed under Article XI, section 8, of the State Constitution. The answer stopped all further work of checking but brought out a multitude of questions as to such petitions in the future.

The work had already disclosed discrepancies, such as residence outside the city limits and indistinguishable handwriting, and these discrepancies were so numerous that the clerk's force felt sure that the petition could not be verified from the register.

The opinion furnished by Mr. Schenck practically says that a petition under the initiative and referendum must be accepted at its face value when filed. In his note he says: "Permit me to state that the petition appears to have been prepared and filed pursuant to section 8 of Article XI of the Constitution of this State and not pursuant to section 18a of the City Charter. It would therefore be your duty to present the petition to the City Council at its next regular meeting for such action thereon as the Council may deem proper in the premises."

The Constitution says when a petition is filed by "qualified voters" it shall be transmitted to the legislative body which "must" order an election. The opinion of the City Attorney's office does not question the sufficiency of what constitutes a "qualified" voter or how the sufficiency of the petition is to be determined or whether the petition is accepted as valid on its face. If such a petition does not need verification City Hall officials see special elections possible every few weeks.

But the Council may take a different view, as most of the members believe the petition cannot be treated officially without actual knowledge that it does contain the required number of signatures. The Council might act if the number is lacking, but at the present time the Council does not want to go to the expense of special election just to try out the theories of a little coterie of reformers. It is likely the Council, at its special session tomorrow morning, will refer the petition to the City Attorney for further advice as to whether the petition is binding without verification.

Under the City Charter the initiative and referendum petition must be verified.

CARR APPOINTED.

NEW HARBOR COMMISSIONER.

The Mayor has sent to the Council the appointment of J. E. Carr, of Carr & Stephens, to succeed F. W. Braun, a member of the Los Angeles Harbor Commission. That Mr. Braun had resigned was not known until his successor was announced.

Mr. Braun assigns too much private business as the reason for his retirement. Recently the Braun Chemical and Equipment house sent in bids on instruments and paraphernalia to be used by the Gas Inspector in testing gas in his laboratory. The amount involved was about $1000 and the Braun company's bid was the lowest of three. The Council was about to award the contract when it was discovered that Mr. Braun was a city official. The City Attorney was consulted and the proposal was rejected. As a member of the Harbor Commission Mr. Braun had been serving without compensation.

Mr. Carr is a well-known business man and has not held any public office before. He is the partner of William D. Stephens, former president of the Chamber of Commerce.

CONSOLIDATION PLAN.

NEW CHARTER AMENDMENTS.

Charter amendments providing a borough system for the consolidation of other municipalities in Los Angeles county with the city of Los Angeles have been submitted to the City Council by the Municipal Waterways Association through Joseph H. Call, its president.

The amendments provide for the consolidation of the city and county government and the annexation of the harbor cities and for the extension of the borough system to cities that may be annexed, when demanded by a majority of the voters. The consolidation of city and county in one government may be determined by a special election of all the territory affected, and the annexation of cities to Los Angeles may be determined by concurrent majority vote of Los Angeles and the city or district to be annexed. After consolidation or annexation the borough system may be extended by a majority vote of the territory desired.

J. E. Carr, new member of the Harbor Commission.

AFTER THIRTEEN YEARS.

Bank's Case Against Water Company Settled: Former Gets Heavy Judgment.

Litigation over the tangled affairs of the Bear Valley Irrigation Company, which had been in progress since 1921, was apparently closed, by a decree signed by Circuit Judge Ross yesterday. By its terms, the Citizens' Savings and Trust Company of Cleveland, O., receives judgment for approximately $1,200,000. The plaintiff is awarded $288,944.46 on 300 promissory notes given by officers of the defendant company; $240,877.22 for receivers' certificates and an allowance of $700 for attorneys' fees. The receiver, William Medland, is directed to sell certain property held by the bankrupt corporation, under the direction of Special Master Chapman.

The company was originally formed for the purpose of impounding the water of Bear Lake and Bear Creek, and supplying it to ranchers in the section around Redlands. It became involved in numerous controversies and was practically bankrupt for years, when the Citizens' Savings and Trust Company attempted to secure the loans; a number of technical barriers were interposed.

It is stated that the present decree is satisfactory to the defendants, and that it is improbable that appeal will be taken.

EASTERN GIRL'S LOCAL HISTORY.

ACCOMPANIES A LOS ANGELES BARBER TO HOTEL.

On Leaving Place, She's Arrested. Makes Confession to Judge and is Allowed to Go Home With Mother. Man Says She Was Untruthful About Her Age.

After admitting wrong conduct, Mabel Packard, 17 years old, was placed on probation by Judge James, yesterday, and her mother, Mrs. Frederick Handy, was allowed to take the girl home.

Miss Packard testified that she came to Los Angeles about seven weeks ago, from Providence, R. I., and that on August 22, she was sent out by her mother to look for work. She said that she met Harry Matthews, a barber at First and Spring streets, was invited by him to take a drink of soda water, and later accompanied him to the Pittsburgh Hotel, where she remained until the following Thursday afternoon. When she left the place, she was arrested.

The barber said that he met the girl first by chance and later by appointment, and that she accompanied him to the hotel. He testified that she was 19 years old.

She did not deny this statement when questioned.

WIVES' SHORTCOMINGS.

MEN GRANTED DIVORCES.

Deserted by Mrs. Marie A. Shortleeve two weeks after their marriage in Oakland in 1907, W. H. Shortleeve secured a divorce from her in Judge James' court yesterday.

"My wife told me that she had made up her mind to leave me and that she did not love me and never could and that she had better leave. She did so, and I had no choice but to let her go. One evening, when I came home from my work, I found her gone. My sister told me that she could have done better than by marrying me. I kept my home up for six months after that, hoping that she would return. She is working here in Los Angeles somewhere."

W. W. Allen secured a divorce from Mrs. L. Allen, also on ground of desertion.

"My wife left me in May, 1907, because, she said, she was not satisfied with a husband unless he made money enough to suit her," Allen testified. "We had a comfortable home and she had no cause of complaint because of my conduct toward her."

Secret Sale of Bonds Is Startling.

"Good Roads" Issue Is Sold in Private.

Three Shut Out All Possible Bids.

A special reason had the "Solid" of the Board of Supervisors to order a secret sale of the $2,000,000 "Good Roads" bonds voted by the Los Angeles county for the improvement of the new highways? Finally in Los Angeles would really know.

Before the Board of Supervisors had taken similar action in such cases; even the sales of bonds have heretofore been advertised and bids received, the high bidder getting the issue bid upon. The usual procedure observed in the sale of county bonds, was not followed and the sale was thrown to the board, at an open meeting, yesterday carried out what was planned at a secret meeting.

The most important issue of bonds voted by this county, the "Solid" of the Board of Supervisors, the other two members, a resolution of the entire issue to the H. Adams and Company and the Los Angeles Trust Company for the sale of one per cent. premium. The board declared that there was a man who would have offered a bid of 1 per cent. If it had been given the chance to bid on the bonds, it would have made a difference of $200,000 in the amount received by the county. The premium, which is now lost one-fourth of one per cent. in the sale of the bonds, is a great deal of money. The board was interested in the fact that in some cases, the local banks would have certain amounts of the bond.

Supervisors GET PROTESTS.

In almost every quarter there is a private sale none were to be made. The board was interested in the fact that in some cases, the local banks would have certain amounts of the bond.

BUBBLES WITH ENTHUSIASM.

Occidental's Head Is an All-Round Booster.

Declares Taft Will Be the Next President.

Offered Another Job, Prefers the Old One.

Happy, optimistic John Willis Baer, president of Occidental College, the man who can drive a smile through a stone wall, is home from the East overflowing with enthusiasm for glorious Southern California.

"I have been at my desk but a half day," he said yesterday evening, "and I already feel my pulse quicken under the influence of the exhilarating ozone of this incomparable atmosphere, and the inspiration of the sunlit skies."

Fresh and breezy as a youth bubbling with the college spirit, he came from a long rest on his Massachusetts farm, his two years' residence in Southern California, having so completely won his affections that the offer of the presidency of a greater college, at a greater salary but with fewer opportunities, only brings him laughingly back to his chosen field and ideal home.

Dr. John Willis Baer, who is a booster for Taft, Occidental College and Southern California. He says Gompers is the greatest menace to adjustment of labor problem.

"I have just rested on the farm all summer, giving no thought to business," he said enthusiastically, "and have gained ten pounds in weight. I had a fine time, though it was miserably hot, and my old friends persistently in calling me a boomer for California. I asked them to come and see. I made several trips to Boston, New York and Philadelphia, but my two years' absence have been a constant delight and I would not exchange the opportunities and privileges I have here for any other similar field in the entire land."

"Confidence is restored in the East and business is much better than when I was East last spring, and money is being loaned at comparatively low rates of interest. The panic has passed and I have talked with many people who were unable to come to California last winter but will be here this winter."

"I am for Taft through and through, and am confident that he will be elected. Taft is the man of the hour on account of his experience and executive ability. I was in Minneapolis when Bryan was there last week, and while I think Johnson probably will carry Minnesota, Taft will run ahead of the Johnson ticket. Gompers will be unable to deliver to any party the so-called labor vote. I have heard Gompers speak, and I believe he is in many ways the greatest menace to the proper adjustment of the capital and labor problem that we have in this country. More than any other man Gompers will find, after the votes are counted in November, that he has a very poor following. Labor, organized or unorganized, will do its own thinking. I have carefully looked over the situation and fail to see that any party has a monopoly of the so-called labor vote, but so far as I am able to judge from careful observation, they will vote for Taft."

Dr. Baer expressed himself as greatly pleased with the progress made in affairs of the college during his absence, and said that the prospect for the best Occidental has ever known.

"I shall be perfectly content," he declared, "if we have as large a freshman class as last year—about seventy-five or eighty—but from present indications the number will be nearer 100. The applicants are being carefully scrutinized and the registration on date includes a splendid group of young people."

The faculty of the college will remain about as it was last year. Prof. E. C. Morse of the University of Indiana is said to be a strong addition to the English department, and Miss Mary Ross of the Whittier High School will become associate professor of science in the English department. Changes are in the physical department. C. E. Braden, formerly director in the Pasadena Y.M.C.A., will become physical director, and W. F. Gordon from Rutgers College, where he has been head coach, will arrive next Tuesday to take the same position here.

Concerning his new offer of the presidency of another college, Dr. Baer would not talk, nor mention the name of the institution, further than to say: "I feel highly complimented, but it did not take me one minute to decide that my place is just where I am. I was before. No, sir, I am not going back East as long as there is a place for me here. I am an Occidental enthusiast; we are going to have a great college. Why should I not be happy?"
